Just over 50% of parents responded to the questionnaire

- In summary, I think this is positive feedback on the whole. There were some very positive comments, which are always good to receive.
- 'The school fosters an excellent sense of community and the teaching is clearly outstanding.'

- 'We are thrilled with how well X has settled into school and the progress he is making.'
- 'The fact that the older children are kind and look after the younger children really does make you feel safe when sending your child off...'
- 'It has given him many fantastic opportunities to develop in a supportive environment.'
- 'We are overall very, very happy with the school.'
- 'We feel privileged that our child is able to learn at such a caring and high achieving school.'
- 'The staff do an amazing job.'

Issues Arising

- Homework: This is always a contentious issue for parents. Some feel there is far too much or too little! Schools rarely get it right.
- Bullying: The majority of parents did not know how we deal with bullying, hopefully because their child had never been bullied. Two parents disagreed that we dealt effectively with bullying, which is worrying. If there ever is an issue and you feel your child may be being bullied, please come and see me, I will do my best to resolve any issues.
- Concerns: I am assuming that parents who ticked that they did not know how we respond to concerns did so because they do not have any concerns?
